

Floss Rule

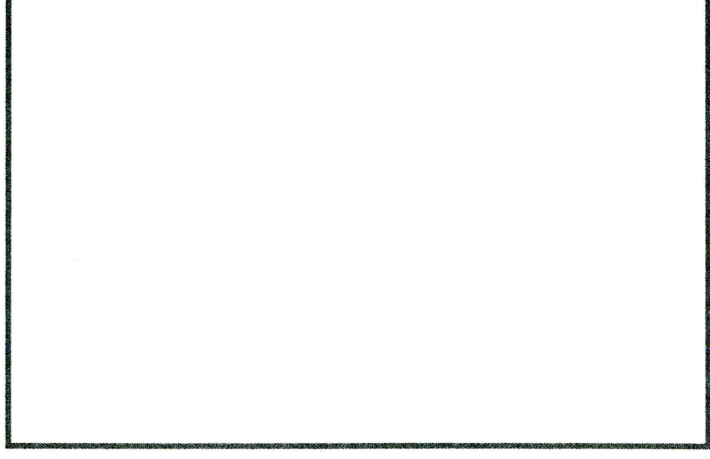

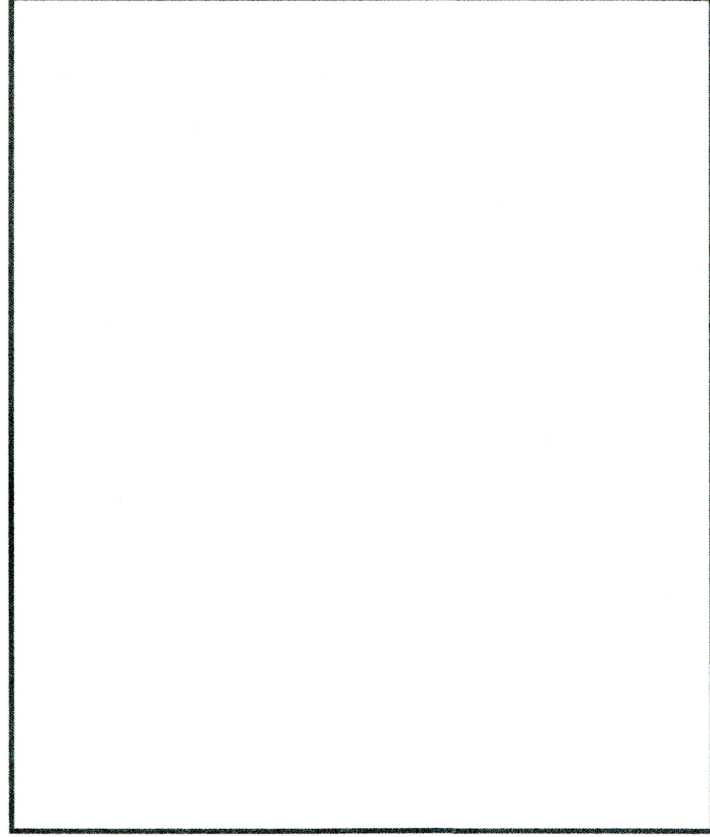

Rule: Double the final f, l, s (also z) at the end of a short word with a short vowel.

Directions: Place a card with an incomplete word on the board. Give the meaning. Child determines the word and selects ff, ll, or ss card to add next to the word.

yell:	shout
gull:	bird
shell:	what you find on the beach skull:	the bony part of the head boss:	person in charge
toss:	to throw
grass:	green plant that covers fields or lawns hiss:	the sound that a snake makes sniff:	smells
stuff:	things
cliff:	a high steep face of a rock rising sharply above the ground stiff:	rigid; not easy to bend chill:	to make cool; cold moss:	plant that grows on rocks dress:	what a girl wears kiss:	touch gently with the lips sell:	to exchange for money
grill:	cooking utensil
pill:	small ball containing medicine spell:	write the letters of a word cross:	a mark formed by two straight lines across each other class:	students in a group

Floss Rule

Double the final f, l, and s at the of a short word with a short vowel.

sni

stu

cli

sti

chi

mo

dre

ki

y e

gu

sku

bo

she

hi

to

gra

se

gri

cla

pi

spe

cro

ll

ff

ss