

Dictation Sentences

(ng, nk, floss, ck, dge, tch, vowel-consonant-e, all, oi,
oy, ar, ee, or, ai, ay, er, igh,
oa, y = i, oo, ea, ou, ow, kn, ir, au, aw)

by

Ronald Yoshimoto, M.Ed., M.S.W.
Fellow, AOGPE (2009)

Dictation Sentences

ang, ing, ong, ung: (List One)

ang: they	The gang sang. They grab the fang. * They sprang from the jet.	The lads bang on the drum. They hang the cloth. He said to jump in slang.	I want a red fang.
ing: (put):	They have to fix the wing. *They swing on the ship. *We went to the string shop.	They sing to the king. Bring the thin clip. It was spring at the ranch.	Put the sash on the king. Bring the fang. They cling to the branch.
ong: could	They could sing a song. Which rod was long? *I could bring a strong man. *Where is the strong man?	The whip was long. That thing was long. There was a throng of men.	Bang on the long drum We sing a sad song. Put the sling on the bench ung:	They hung the shelf. *The gang flung the swing. *She sprung on the bunch.	The king hung the sash. The chimp flung the trash. They cling to the rung.	They stung the lad. He could bring the lung.

ank, ink, onk, unk: (List One, they, put, could) ank: should from	Hank put the cash in the bank. Put the fish in the tank. *They should thank the chap. *He drank milk from the mug.	The ship sank in the pond. Yank the pink sash. We should spank the king. It was a bad prank.

ink: give	The rink was long. They could not sink the ship. *Have them drink milk and punch. *The mink in the shop was stink.	Give the pink mink to the bank. There was a kink on the neck. I think they drink at lunch. Give the lass a blink and wink.
unk: one	The ship sunk in the pond. Give the punk a string. *There is one conch in the trunk. *She had spunk to bring a skunk. *They shrunk the dress.	There was junk in the chest. There was one bunk in the ship. They flunk the math test. He drunk the punch and the broth. Put the sling and string in the trunk.
onk:	The monk was in the shed.	Do not honk at the king.

*Sentences are somewhat harder.

Dictation Sentences2

Floss (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has)

Father will ask the monk to sing.
Mother will give him a trunk.
There is a smell in the tank.
Father will put the trash in the bin.
Mother should sell the stuff.
Fill the cup with punch.
Where is the pink dress?
Who has the grass and moss?
Mother could not spell well.
Father should them to think.
She has one pink dress.

There is a bad smell in the brass trunk.
Father will give them a swell pink shell.
Mother was cross with the lads in the class.
Where is the best dress shop?
The gang could not pass the math test.
The lass will miss the class test.
They will bring the cross and skull to the boss.
We think Jon will go the ranch to grill fish.
The class had bass for brunch at the ranch.

The class will have a math test.
You should toss the dress.
Mother could not spank the kid.
They should sell one shell.
The gull drank the punch.
Where is the class?
I want to kill the bug.
Who can spell the best?
Pass the string to father.
They should come to the bank.
He has a big sink.

Mother will toss the stink conch.
Who will kiss the strong lad?
When will the boss come to the job?
What is the best prank?
Father should put the bed in the shed.
Mother will give the junk to them.
She goes to the well to fill the mug.
Mother will sell four fish to the king.
It was a thrill to sing in the spring.

ck, (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push)

Put the two fish in the sack.
Mother will push the rock.
What will they pack in the sack?
She does not want to pick up the shell.
The class could sell a sack of grass.
Where will the ship dock?
You could pass the class test.
Push the brass bell.

The clock rang at two and at four.
Where is the black truck?
Push the brass trunk to the truck.
Father sell the long plank to the boss.
I think that they can push the sink to the crack.
Two of them can run on the long track.
There is a smock in the trunk that we could sell.
When can the ship with the trucks dock?

Father will pinch the duck.
Who will lock the trunk?
He struck the neck of the duck.
Mother should not yell at the duck.
Father will crush the junk.
When can they pass the truck?
She will cling to the branch.
There are two fish in the tank.

There was a stack of grass in the tank.
Who will have a snack in class?
Mother was cross with slick boss.
What is in the sack in the shed?
Pick two fish and sell them to the king.
Bring a bell and ring it at two.
Mother goes to the shed to pick up a brass bed.

Dictation Sentences3

dge: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live)

She will lick the fudge.
They live in the back of the shack.
The sick lass would not pick up the cloth.
Who will come to the lodge?
The nest of the finch is on the ledge.
Thank mother for the swell fudge.
The gull will nudge the mink.
The judge will live next to the shed.

There was a crack on the bridge.
Would you want a pink truck?
Father will trim the grass and hedge.
The king will dredge the pond.
The sick duck would not swim in the trench.
Who will live in the shack on the ledge?
The boss will dodge the truck on the bridge.
There was a black smudge on the pink smock.
They stand on the edge of the black and pink deck.

I would not stand on the ledge.
The judge struck the desk.
Mother was at the pink lodge.
He was on the edge of the cliff.
The truck is on the ridge.
Where is the flock of ducks?
Would you pick up the badge?
The men live on the ledge.

I pledge to live next to the ridge.
There was a black smudge on the brass sink.
The judge does not have a grudge.
Where in the trench is the sludge?
He struck the duck on the neck.
The crab will not live in the junk shell.
Mother will drink the punch a glass.
Push the truck off the bridge.

tch: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none)

None of them will catch the slick duck.
There was a patch of grass on the ledge.
None of the fish would swim in the sludge.
Where is the latch for the box?
Could they shrink the pink smock?
None of them will grab the batch of fudge.
Put the duck in the pitch black hutch.
You should not give him a match.

I want to scratch the itch on your neck.
None of them could clutch the slick duck.
Mother will stitch the cloth again.
Father will pledge to stretch the long string.
They drank pink punch again.
Mother snatch and clutch the slick grill.
His boss will botch the job again.
Where is the pink and black truck?
Jon has a sketch of the judge.

The judge will fetch a rock again.
Would you pitch the sock again.
Who will catch the sick duck?
The judge fell in the ditch again.
There was a notch in the plank.
There was an itch on her neck.
Fetch the wedge and bring it to Bill.
Lock the latch and then go back.

I was the last to snatch the fudge again.
Two of them will stretch again.
Can you sketch the duck on the bridge?
None of them want to cross the judge.
There is one switch on the ledge.
None of the fish want to live in the ditch.
Who wants to sing with the witch?
I should give the Dutch man a grass shack.

Dictation Sentences4

-ed - /ed/: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull)

Mother mended the smock.
Push the dented truck.
Father ended the match.
Mother planted at the edge of plot.
None of them rested.
They were tested in class.

They pull the sledge off the rack.
The finch nested on the branch.
The dog panted when he ran.
Two of them sanded the plank.
Push the rock off the bridge.
They will pull the brass chest.

One gull nested on the edge of the cliff.
Mother and father dusted the pink clock.
The judge will pull the clock to the bridge.
The Dutch man dented the black truck.
When will mother mended the pink smock?

Four of them hunted in the glen.
They wanted to stretch the chess match.
Two of them will switch the lock again.
None of them will pull the plump duck.
Where will they snatch the swell swing?

-ed - /d/: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many)

Many of them yelled at the judge.
The witch killed the black duck.
Father smelled the stink sock.
Many pulled the hutch.
Many were on the edge of the cliff.

None of them spilled the milk.
Mother filled the crock with junk.
He will pledge to dig a ditch.
Father billed him less.
Mother chilled the fudge.

Father grilled the fish and put it on the dish.
None of them filmed the judge on the bridge.
Many in the class spelled it.
I yelled at the cross judge in the hatch.

Mother smelled the stink sock in the trunk.
Who would scratch the back of the dog?
Many spilled the milk from the jug.

-ed - /t/: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door)

The mad man punched the door.
Many in class thanked him.
The king lunched with the judge.
Father asked Tom to bring a bench.

Mother picked up the stink sock.
Two of them went to shut the door.
Four of them blinked.
One lad pitched and missed.

Jon will want to sell his chess set.
The gulls flocked to the stench on the bridge.
Mother locked the door and rushed to the bus.
He has rented a T.V.

Father helped the boss to the door.
Many jumped up to catch the pitch.
He pinched the lass and she punched him.

Dictation Sentences5

a-e: (List One) (they, put could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both)

Both of them could not hate him.
Shut the door and come to the safe.
Mother will save the fudge.
Father helped him to tame the cat.
Two of them had the same name.
I gave the judge the name of the duck.
The witch will shut the door and wave a stick.

The plane landed on the lake.
The hare jumped on the snake in the pit.
Both of them put the duck in the crate.
Which whale struck the black ship?
Father should shake the hedge to get the snake.
Put the cake and the fudge on the plate.
The brave ducks will scare off the snake.
Father yelled at the witch to trade the hat.

The man rode the big wave.
None of them will make a cake.
They rested in the cave.
He fell off the same bridge.
I thanked the cop who helped me.
He will catch both of the fish in the lake.
Father tossed the match in the lake.

Mother will grade the test and give him a grade.
Who will help the lame duck cross the bridge?
Both of them skate well on the lake.
It was a shame that they could not win the game.
He had a spade a to dig a trench.

i-e: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear)

The man smashed the hive.
The lime is ripe and can be picked.
Father should wear a black and white cap.
When will you catch nine fish?
The white truck is long and wide.
He could push the pine door.
They will hide in the ditch.
Both of the men picked up the pipe.

Mother will drive the black and white truck.
Both of them will wear a pink and black smock.
Where did they slide or glide lake?
Father want a black cap with white stripe.
He will trade with the tribe that lives in the cave.
Pull the door of the plane and jump off.
They hunted the hare who jumped off the ledge of the cliff.
Who will drive the truck to the white bridge?
Many of the men will wear a cap with a white stripe.

She will wear a pink smock.
Mother gave him a bike.
Two of them will hide the bike.
The tame duck is mine.
The plane landed on the lake.
Mother will wipe the spade.
The kite will cost one dime.
The brave man will hide the plank.
There is grime on the stripe of the dress.
There is a lot of crime in this block.
The lad will swipe the prize bike.
The bell will chime at one and four.
She will wear a pink smock and smile.
They hunted the big white whale.
Father smashed the pine crate in the shed.
Jon will blame Rob for the crime.

Dictation Sentences6

o-e: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl)

The rich girl had a big home.
The class will vote to toss a kite.
They hope to wipe the grime off the bike.
He will toss a bone to the dog.
Bring the rope and pull the door.
Two of them will doze in the cab.
Who will have coke and lime?
I hope that none of them will hide.

I pledge to go to the store with the boss.
They drove to the tribe to trade with them.
The rich girl tended to the lime grove.
Who will push the stone bench to the plane?
The rich girl can smile at the lad who did the chore.
Father will slide on the slope of the hill.
Both of them smelled the skunk in the dome.

Father said a joke to the judge.
Mother went home to wear a smock.
The girl woke up and slid on the slide.
Do not poke at the lad.
Many rich men will push the wide dome.
Where is the note that he sent?
She dusted the crate again.

Push the black and white stove to the ledge.
Mother froze four of the fish.
Do not choke the neck of the doll.
The girl will probe in the trash.
Shut the pine door and come to the shack.

u-e: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get)

Father sang a tune.
The cube could not fit in the box.
There was a cute mule in the plane.
The rude man said that Jan was not cute.
She will wear the cute cape.
They will vote to rule.
Mother will get the lute.

Get a bag of prunes from the store.
The girl will get one plume.

Get the mule to pull the stove.
The duke is a rich man.
In June, they will get a store.
The girl landed the plane in the dune.
The girl will drink pure milk.
It was a chore to pull the mule.
Put the mule in the cave.

He was a brute to push the judge.
He was a crude man.

s = /z/: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal)

The man was rich and wise.
They will get a vise at the store.
They will smell the pink rose.
The girl chose to wear the cute pink dress.
Mother will use the vise.

The animal has a nose to smell.
Close the door and drive to the plane.
The animal chose that prize.
Use the cloth to wipe the lute.
These are the best prunes.

Dictation Sentences7

all: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy)

The mule will kick the ball.
The cute animal is tall.
Come to the mall and get a rope.
Do not shake the cube.
Put the mule in the stall.
In the fall, we will buy a plane.

The duke will buy a pane of glass.
Get the pink and black ball.
I hope to call mom at one.
The girl will wear a small dress.
We will make a stone wall.
The small animal jumped on the pine.

oi: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which)

They will join the club.
Mother has a small coil.
The animal slept in the soil.
Father has to buy oil.
He will boil the snake.
Which coin will you use to call dad?

Put the coin in the sack.
The men will toil in the hot sun.
The dime is a small coin.
The soil in the cave is damp.
Which one is tall and long?
They will boil the hare.

He chose to broil the fish in the grill.
Which one will make noise in the stall?
They will buy a moist cake at the store.
Father will buy a rose and cake to give mom.
Which animal made all that noise in the plane?
The cop will stop the crime wave.
They pointed to the small plane in the grove.
The animal will scare the cute mules.

Mother pointed to the big whale.
The brute kicked the ball in the plane.
The hot sun spoiled the broiled fish.
The mule broke a joint in the stall.
Father dug a hole in the soil.
Who will join the bridge club?
Which oil can did father use?
The rich man broiled the duck.

oy: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe)

The tall boy will not join the club.
Will the shoe fit the boy?
Which toy does the boy like?
The boy wants the black shoe.
The wise man said it was a ploy to trick you.
The coy mule pointed to the whale.
Which toy should you give to the boy?
The girl and boy will join the club.

Mother will buy a toy for the brave boy.
It was a joy to win the small coins.
Father will buy soy milk for the animal.
The lass was small and coy.
The boy has a moist cake.
It was a joy to drive top the dome.
The shoe did not fit the big boy.

Dictation Sentences8

ar: (List One) (they, put, could, should, give, one, father, mother, has, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk)

They will walk to the yard.
Both of them will lift the harp.
The smart boy walked to the store.
The star shone in the dark.
Do not walk in the dark.
Can we talk to the coy shark?
The dog barked at the animal in the park.

The girls will join the smart club.
Do not walk in the marsh.
Could we talk to the harsh brute?
Mother wanted me to buy starch.
There was an arch in the park.
They started the car and drove to the marsh.
Jon will talk with the dog who snarls.

The star will give a talk at the park.
The mule pulled the cart.
The shark spoiled the joy in the park.
Which lark sang the long song?
It was a joy to bark at the hive.
The small cake was hard not moist.
Walk to the store and buy a tart.

Walk past the sharp pointed stick.
She will wear a red and pink scarf.
There was a spark in the car.
He tossed the dart at the door.
Father will buy moist cake at the mart.
Can you walk with these shoes?
The quiz was hard but the class did well.

ee: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry)

They planted the beet seeds in the park.
The deer ran in the marsh.
Father needed two darts.
The teen will take one part of the jeep.
They will carry four tires to the jeep.
Mother broiled the beef.
I feel sad that the shark spoiled the fun.
The queen was keen to talk with the carp.
There were weeds in the park.

You should brush and floss your teeth.
Can you carry the screen door to the stove?
Talk to the queen and she will make the speech.
Mother will buy green cheese for snack.
The shark and steed are fast animals.
Who wants to carry the sheep to the park?
The shark will swim in the reef.

The yard sale lasted one week.
The queen will carry the pointed stick.
Mother will meet the boy in the yard.
The sheep will carry the bark.
They should keep the three coins.
There was a smudge on the cheek.
The heel was hard not soft.
The girl will wear a green and white cap.
The pine tree was tall and green.

Do not squeeze the lime.
The street next to the park was long and wide.
There were three trees in the marsh.
Use the steel grill to broil the beef.
The smart deer ran to the marsh.
The queen will talk to the bee and carp.
The sheep must flee from the man.

Dictation Sentences9

or: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his)

His chore was to sweep the floor in the morn.
The men walked to the fort.
It was hard to wipe the floor with the short mop.
They should use a fork to pick the beet.
Mother and father will sit on the porch.
They will use the cord and rope to pull the cart.
There was grime on his sleeve.
The cord was four feet long.
The boys will form a line to go to art class.
He has three green darts in the store.

We will meet in the dorm.
Mother will buy sweet corn.
Three storks landed in the marsh.
The horse could not run in the street.
The man will buy a steel door.
I will buy a toy fort for the kids.
The screen door was torn in the storm.
There was a cut on his arm.
Who can carry the steel door?
Father will walk on this side of the street.

ai: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people)

The people will aim the gun at the tree.
Mother will wait for them at the dorm.
The people will carry the horse to the stall.
You should not pull the tail of the mule.
People should not walk in the rain.
Lets meet and talk with the fair queen.
The people cannot sail in the storm.
The rain storm lasted for two weeks.
It was not fair to the people.

The short frail man had bad teeth.
The people will paint the wall of the dorm.
The horse will carry the saint on his back.
He walked for ten miles and fainted.
There was a stain on his teeth.
The train will still run in the storm.
The brain of the whale is quite small.
Who will buy the can of sweet corn?
The animal had a chain on his short neck.
The deer ate the grain on the porch.
He lit the torch and went to the dark cave.
The people did wait in line in the storm.

He will use shrimp for bait.
The short maid swept the floor.
He had a sharp pain in his chest.
The class failed to pass the test.
We waited for him at the porch.
The judge sent the people to jail.
They raided the store on that street.
The jail was four feet long.
The boy aimed the gun at the deer.

The people will hike on the steep trail.
It was a strain to wax and mop the floor.
Father will carry the storm drain pipe.
The snail will creep on the wide street.
They will use the cord to keep the quail.
He sprained his hand when he lifted the horse.
They formed a line at the paint store.
She will wear a plain dress to the class.
Sleet did not stop the train.
There was a sharp pain in his brain.
Who will carry the small quail?

Dictation Sentences10

ay: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend)

Go this way to the drain.
It was a long and hot day.
The friend did not stay long at home.
His friend will pay the fare for Sam.
The boy lost his way on the trail.
We should meet at the park to play the game.
The people swayed as they sang the song.
His friend will wait in line to pay the fee.

He will sail in the bay.
The tail of the jay was black.
I may meet him at the marsh.
The people will stay at the park.
Mother put the cake on the tray.
Put the fork and the cheese on the tray.
May I walk with the smart judge.
You should not play in the street.

er: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police)

Call the police and they will take him to jail.
Her friend picked up the stray dog.
Her friend will wait at the green train.
The woman clerk had a plain dress.
The smart boy will slay the big buck.
The police will track and nab the clerk.
The deer will greet the quail in the morn.

The woman will plant the fern in the pot.
You should pay the police for the fine.
The herd walked on the steep trail.
Mother was stern with the sheep.
The queen will serve scones to the police.

igh: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone)

They will serve corn on the flight.
The woman put a snail in the clay pot.
He will hail a cab with his right hand.
She will wear a tight and short dress.
The police cut the beech tree.
They will sleep at night in the sleek tent.
It was a bright day on the plain.
Everyone will take the herd to the fort.
It was dark not bright in the dank cave.
Everyone in the class will wear a gray cap.
I might talk with the pert lass.
The sleeve was torn by the stray dog.

Anyone can light the torch.
It was sight to see the police nab the bad man.
The woman will serve pork on a plate.
Anyone can take a week to end the game.
The stern clerk will fight with the cop.
Everyone did not like the tight pants.
In the first term, the class did well.
The car was on the right side of the street.
It was a quaint hut on that street.

Dictation Sentences11

oa: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water)

Father will load up the car for the trip.
Everyone is busy herding the sheep.
The police loaded the cart at night.
My friend will serve broiled goat.
The police will drive on the road.
It was a busy day for everyone.
The woman put on the bright coat.
The plane landed on the road.
The frail foal was born in the stall.
The bright pert lass will wear a painted dress.

The quaint gray boat floated in the water.
Mother roasted the boar and put it on the tray.
The toad croaked at night and made people mad.
Anyone can boast that he is the best in class.
They were busy roasting the pig and the quail.
The fern fell and hit her brain and she groaned.
Everyone was mad at the big roach in the porch.
The clerk did not talk with the busy saint.
The frog croaked all night long.
Her friend will use soap and water on the coat.

Mother will buy soap from the store,
The deer moaned from the pain.
The people hunted for the boar.
The boys played in the water.
Anyone can score a goal.
The rich man will loan the cash to dad.
They will soak the cloth in water.
The boys played a hoax on her.
The man sanded the oak door.
Mother put the loaf on the steel tray.

The tall clerk was busy on the long flight.
Mother grilled three fish and served them with toast.
She will wear a bright pink and green cloak.
His throat was sore and parched.
Do not poach on his land.
Everyone roamed the street late at night.
They did not score well on the long test.

y = i: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch)

The boar roared when he was harmed.
Why did they watch the man poach a quail?
The frail man with wailed when he was maimed.
It was a hot day and my throat was dry.
Mother will fry the boar and quail.
Everyone did not eat fried goat.
They will wear a black cloak to the ball.

The police will watch the plain steed.
The sly fox stayed on the road at night.
Jan will try her best on the test.
The goat fell in the deep water.
The police will spy on the clerk in the store.
Can anyone watch the shy boy?
Everyone drank water on the long flight.

Dictation Sentences12

oo - moon: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change)

The spy was in the right side of the room.
 The moon was bright last night.
 On the roof, there were two lights.
 His friend stayed in my room last night.
 The water in the pool was cool.
 There were two goats and four deers in the zoo.
 Who should change room?

They watched shy goat fight the boar.
 There was a coop above the door.
 Father coaxed him to swim in the pool.
 It was cool in the room at noon.
 Roast the beef and fry the pork.
 There was a roach above the food.
 Why did the they push the loom?
Change the sheet for the bed.

The police will snoop on the gang.
 The groom and bride toasted their friends.
 Put the stool above the sink.
 The man will pull out my loose tooth.
 Use the broom to sweep the floor of the bright room.
 The police will stand on the stool to check for paint stains.
 The clerks stain the oak floor.
 The dog drooled when he met the jay.

I might shoot the black and white boar.
 The troops will fight the men on the boat.
 The goose will fly to the coast.
 He will watch to see that everyone has a fork and spoon.
 Can they change the light of the dorm room?
 They will choose to loan them cash.
 He drove the car on the smooth road.
 The police need proof to send him to jail oo - book: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty)

His parent sanded the smooth oak floor.
 The police got the crook and put him in jail.
 The goose swam in the brook.
 The pretty woman stood in the room.
 My friend will sweep the wood floor.
 The wood floated in the brook.
 The poor woman was pretty and smart.
 She will wear a pretty wool coat at night.
 Watch for the stork and the sheep at the zoo.
 Her parent shook the mop and broom.
 The groom and bride will walk on the trail.

Everyone will like the good food.
 They will use a hook to catch the whale.
 My parent took them to the train.
 Her parent will change the time to meet.
 Father could see a big moose in the zoo.
 The maid will look for the wood tray.
 Mother will cook the goose for the class.
 Why did they groan?
 He yelled at the game and his throat was sore.
 There were many people at the bookstore.

Dictation Sentences13

ea - eat: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry)

My parent will cook the meat with high heat.
She cooked the meal on the wood stove.
They could hear a merry song on the flight.
Father will deal the cards and play the game.
My friend likes to drink cool tea.
There was a leak in the drain pipe.
Watch the weak and frail man as he may fall.
He will wear hood and cloak at night.
Sweep the floor and keep the room neat.
The teal duck floated in the brook.
The crooks had a merry time at the game.
They fear that the good man might be lost.

I pleaded with them to wait for the groom.

The roach scooted and my friend screamed.
The berry wine was not as good as the grape wine.
Please put a leash on your dog.
They hunted the whale with a spear gun.
Can you bring a stool so I can reach the pot.
My dear friend will teach me to roast a goose.
There was a stream in the east.
We should leave the beach as it will be night soon.
Mother will use grease to cook the pork.
The man played a hoax on the teacher.
The queen shook his hand and called him a dear.
They will sneak past the police and steal the leash.

The merry men will leap on the horse.
He will eat the berry.
The team lost the game.
There are 52 weeks in a year.
Jan was pretty and neat.
The rich mean man was a fool.
The bugs will eat the green leaf for food.
She did not want a berry drink.
The team did not cheat at the card game.
There was a lean cook.
The seal took a seat next to the goose.
She was a dear friend of mine.

My parent will speak with the team coach.

Please look for a merry song to play.
He ate the feast with a spoon and fork.
My friends choose not to tease the woman.
There is a streak on the glass.
The small rat squealed when it came to cat.
Please do not shoot the poor seal at the beach.
Scoop the sand from the beach and bring with you to the stream.
Please use bleach and soap to clean the room.

ea - bread: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash)

Please wash her head and hands.
They will spread the cloak on the floor.
Work hard and your health will be good.
The goose and horse are dead.
Wash your hands and brush your teeth.
He dreaded working in the zoo.

Please bring a loaf of bread.
My friend read the long book.
The lead pipe had a crack in it.
Mother needs green and pink thread.
The wealth of the man made him rich.
Mother will bake a loaf wheat bread.

Dictation Sentences14

ou: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose)

The team will lose the bout.

The cloud in the sky is dark.

The scout troop went to the beach.

The hound dog barked all night long.

Please wash the green and white blouse.

It took five minutes to move the couch.

The class shouted and screamed that he cannot lose the race.

The merry cooks found flour to bake bread.

He was out of breath when he lost the race.

She hit the boar and it squealed in a loud voice.

The ground shook and the people screamed.

Father was out of breath and he slouched on the couch.

The beast crouched near the cliff.

The stream in the east was hard to cross.

The proud police spread out to nab the man.

It took a minute to catch the big trout.

My parent will feed the mouse in the nook.

This room in the house was small and bright.

The boss shouted at the cook to work.

She was meant to have the house.

My parent found a broom at the steam room.

He will spread the jam on the fresh bread.

Father had to scour the pan for the cook.

I have two minutes to leave the peace march.

Please take the lout to the police.

They feared that the feast would be loud.

The men snoozed at the end of a long day.

He dreamed of taking his ground troops to the beach.

The whale spouted on and off for three minutes.

My friend placed the coins in the pouch.

ow: /ō/: (List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose, before, after)

The boys will leap on the mound of snow.

They will throw snowballs at the dead tree.

He found the mouse after it squeaked.

Before I leave, I must pound the heap.

There are rows of pea and beet plants.

The corn will grow in the mound.

We sweated after mowing the grass.

The thread glowed in the house at night.

The stream flowed to house.

The boys is all grown.

He had thrown the ball.

The crow found a toad and snail.

The police will tow the car.

The slow boat found its way to the beach.

The deaf moose will show the way after he eats.

He counted the dead crows before stacking them on the mound.

The roof was low and he hit his head.

We had shown the couch to the man.

He will leave the bowl for dean.

Dictation Sentences15

ow: /ou/:

(List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose, before, after, move, away)

The cow will move out of the house.
The crow will fly away from the peak.
The freak will bow to the house mouse.
The troop will eat their chow after the steam bath.
We watch the tide and move the boat from the beach.

Now is the time to choose a hound.
After he plows the ground, he must show me how to plant the seeds.
She will wax her brows before heading to the dance.
He moved away from the plow.

The owl hooted at night in the barn.
The scout moved from town.
They could not drown in the small stream.
The clown will speak in a fun way.
The brown cow sounded sick.
The goose will fly south and then east.
My mother will move to the east.
The crook ran away from the police.
I can hear the dog howl at night.

The dog howled at the moon last night.
He moved away for his health.
The proud man frowned at the teacher.
The dog growled at the crook in the house.
The boar scowled at the man with the gun.
The queen will wear her crown when she comes to town.

The tower is ten feet high.
The flower will bloom at night.
Please take a shower before you sleep.

The boy will wipe his head with the towel.
The crowd came to see the freak mouse.

kn:

(List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose, before, after, move, away, done, gone)

I know that he is done with all of the work.
The knight vowed to save the queen.
He had thrown the knife at the clown.
Mother kneaded the flour to make bread.
The clown has gone to town to spear the fish.
The knave pounded the oak door.

I have known that he is gone.
He screamed when his knee was hit.
The scout knocked on the door.
He has done all of the chores.
There was a sore in the mouth of the knight.
There was a knot in the rope.

Dictation Sentences16

ir:

(List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose, before, after, move, away, done, gone, much, such)

It was such a long way to third base.

I know that the bird is brown.

The third crow found the knife.

How many birds did you count?

The knight squirmed before the match.

Mother will buy a shirt and skirt.

The knight was the first in line.

The boy will squirt water on the cow.

The owl nested in the fir tree.

How much can we spend on the shirt?

The clown knocked on the door of the house.

Mother will stir the food in the bowl.

There is such a big knot on the branch of the fir tree.

The bird played in the dirt on the ground.

au:

(List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose, before, after, move, away, done, gone, much, such, hurry)

The cause of the crash was not known.

Please hurry and serve the food.

It my fault that she did have a pretty skirt.

The police will send them to jail for fraud.

It was a such a mess and they to hurry to help the people.

Father will hurry to put his cash in the third bank vault.

Do not taunt the hound dog.

There was a short pause before they shouted at the knight.

The gaunt man did know who to call.

Mother made a nice sauce for the broiled fish.

The people will haul the tower to town.

aw:

(List One) (they, put, could, should, has, give, one, father, mother, two, push, would, live, again, none, pull, many, door, both, wear, rich, girl, get, animal, buy, which, shoe, walk, talk, carry, floor, his, people, friend, woman, police, anyone, everyone, busy, water, watch, above, change, parent, pretty, berry, merry, work, wash, minute, lose, before, after, move, away, done, gone, much, such, hurry, laugh, once)

The claw of the bird was sharp.

The snow will thaw soon.

The owl had a raw fish in its mouth.

I saw a brown owl just once.

I will buy the third straw hat.

The paw of the animal was big.

He laughed at the man and caused a brawl.

The fawn will crawl in the drain.

Move the third pawn in chess game.

She will wear a long shawl and skirt.

Mother will fry the prawns for the meal.

He will draw the head of the bird.