

ow

(as in cow)
(at the end of a word)

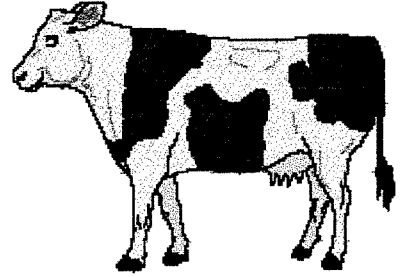

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

cow	bow	wow	vow	how	now
sow	brow	chow	plow	scow	prow

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

ow

(as in cow)
(at the end of a word)

cow bow vow wow how now

brow chow plow scow prow

“milk the cow” “vow not to smoke” “How are you?”

“it is time to go now” “bowed before the queen”

“the prow of the boat” “plow the ground” “wipe your brow”

Words to Spell:

ow

(as in cow)

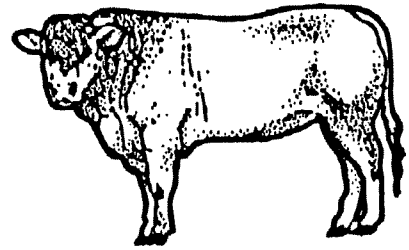

(at the end of a word)

cow bow vow scow sow prow plow chow

ow

(as in cow)

(at the end of a word)

cow bow vow wow sow how now brow

chow plow prow

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

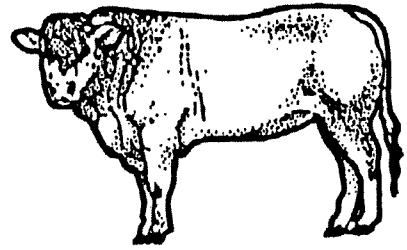

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

ow

(as in cow)

(at the end of a word or when followed by a single "l" or "n")

brow plow fowl howl prowl growl jowl

town brown clown crown drown

OW

(as in owl or clown)
(at the end of a word)
(or when followed by "l" or "n")

owl fowl howl jowl prowl growl town brown clown crown frown drown

"the night owl" "howl at the moon" "the dog growled"

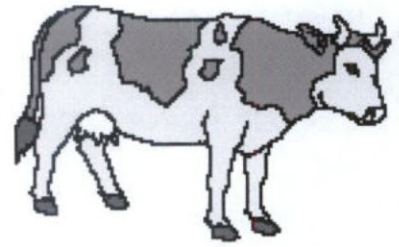

"the brown dog" "wore a crown" "feed the fowl"

"the small town" "frown at the man" "prowler in the house"

Words to Spell:

OW

(as in cow)
(at the end of a word)

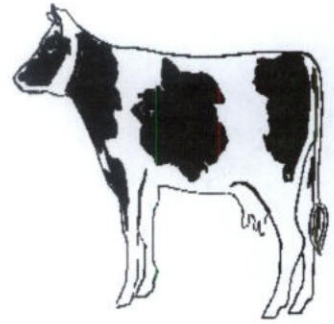

cow vow bow wow how now
sow brow plow chow

“vow to do her best” “bow to the prince” “how to do it”
“raised her brows” “the black and white cow”

OW

(as in cow)
(at the end of a word)

cow vow bow wow how now
sow brow scow prow plow chow

“the black and white cow” “bow to the queen and prince”

“plow the ground” “take care of the sow at the farm”

“prow of the boat” “How is the mouse?” “vow to do well”

Words to Spell:
