

ow

(as in snow)
(at the end of a word)

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

low row tow flow slow glow grow show blow stow crow snow

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

ow

(as in snow)
(at the end of a word)

bow low mow row tow slow

glow grow show blow throw crow

“mow the grass” “a row of chairs” “tow the truck”

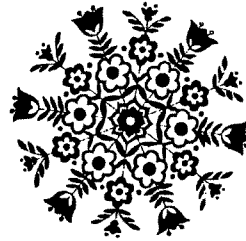

“throw the ball” “the loud crow” “blowing in the wind”

“the glowing light” “show him what to do” “a low roof”

Words to Spell:

ow

(as in snow)

(at the end of a word)

crow flow glow grow show stow throw

ow

(as in snow)

(at the end of a word)

bow low slow blow grow flow show tow

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

ow

(as in bowl)
(at the end of a word)
(or when followed by "l" or "n")

bowl blown flown grown shown thrown

"had blown away" "all grown up" "had thrown the ball"

"had flown away" "a bowl of milk for the cat"

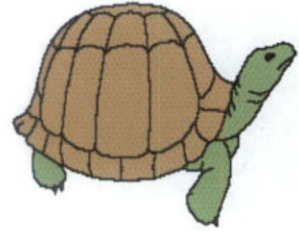

"had shown him the way home"

Words to Spell:

OW

slow

(as in slow)
(at the end of a word)

mow

tow

row

bow

low

slow

flow

blow

grow

show

blow

crow

“mow the grass”

“in the back row”

“a slow boat”

“the creek flows”

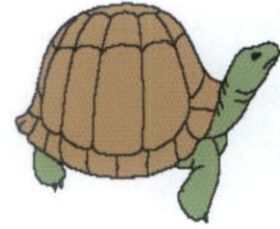

“grows on the tree”

“the loud crow”

OW

slow

(as in slow)
(at the end of a word)

mow tow row bow low slow flow

blow grow show blow crow snow throw

“the wind blows” “the loud black crows” “throw the ball”

“flow into the creek” “tow the car” “mow the grass”

“show and tell” “a row of desks” “grow up tall”

Words to Spell:
